MERCHANT MARINE CIRCULAR MMC-382

- To: Ship-owners/Operators, Company Security Officers, Legal Representatives of Panamanian Flagged Vessels, Panamanian Merchant Marine Consulates and Recognized Organizations (RO's) and Recognized Security Organizations (RSO's).
- Subject: Panama Policy on Remote Surveys for Recognized Organizations and Recognized Security Organizations.
- Reference: Resolution J.D. No. 019-2005 of November 24, 2005.
Merchant Marine Circular No. MMC-159 – “Control of the Issuance of Statutory Certificates” and Merchant Marine Circular No. MMC-354 – “Guidelines on Maritime Cyber Risk Management”.

1. Purpose

- 1.1. The purpose of this circular is to inform all Recognized Organizations (RO's) interested to obtain authorization to conduct surveys and certificates on board Panama flagged vessels.

2. Background

- 2.1. The increasing technological advances and solutions offered/available for efficient operations and the continued improvement of the procedures and techniques to perform surveys and audits, aiming to optimize the travelling time and expenses.
- 2.2. Human life safety is a key factor for the shipping industry and their exposure to risks is an aspect to consider during surveys; similarly, minimizing disruptions during loading and unloading operations, and their associated risks is one of the commitments of this Administration.

3. Definitions

- 3.1. Remote Surveys: is a method of obtaining information equivalent to that obtained from survey on site, by applying digitals and technological systems, in an efficient and secure manner, to carry out survey without surveyor's attendance on board ships.

Merchant Marine Circular

3.2. Remote inspection techniques means a method to conduct remote surveys includes the use of remote/tools such as viewing a livestream of audio and video or data stream, or reviewing information and data by means of iPods, video conference/meetings, visual images, photographs, screenshots, trend analysis printouts or using divers, unmanned robot arm, remote operates vehicles (ROV), climbers, drones, or other means acceptable to the Recognized Organizations, however, other means used by Recognized Organizations to conduct remote surveys, should be accepted by the Administration.

4. Application

4.1. Remote Surveys may be used as an alternative to survey on site, employing remote inspection techniques by the crew or ship-designated person, to provide the survey results necessary to the RO appointed surveyor, for the correspondent evaluation, therefore, the survey can be carried out wherever the ship is located and in order to ensure compliance with the applicable international requirements.

5. Approvals of Recognized Organizations to perform Remote Surveys/Audits:

5.1. Every Recognized Organization is responsible to determine if the ship applying for remote survey is eligible for the inspection, considering the scope and suitable conditions to perform such work.

5.2. All Recognized Organizations shall submit their procedures to ro-panama@segumar.com, in order to evaluate the capabilities developed to execute Remote Surveys/Audits. After being approved, the Recognized Organizations will be authorized to carry out the following Surveys-Audits, so far:

1. Interim ISM / ISPS and MLC Audits.
2. Additional ISM/ISPS/MLC due to rectification of non-conformities or pending remarks (Not applicable in cases of Additional Audits due to PSC & ASI detentions).
3. Statutory rectification of deficiencies or remarks (in cases of PSC & ASI detentions it will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis).
4. Occasional In-water Survey
5. Radio Surveys which have been attended by a radio technician subcontracted by the RO as service supplier or an exclusive radio surveyor.

Note: For those cases when a third-party service suppliers or firms approved by the RO, are involved in rectifications of deficiencies, Non-Conformities, remarks, occasional in- water surveys and radio surveys, the RO must keep the corresponding records of such services.
