

Commitment to the impartiality

NIPPON KAIJI KYOKAI has understood an importance of impartiality, controlled to be against interests, ensured an objectivity of certification services for the purpose of performing certification services with respect to the audits and registration of quality, environmental and occupational health and safety management systems of client organizations.

In order to achieve above purpose, all personnel engaged in providing certification services are requested to secure an impartial, control to be against interests, ensure an objective and to perform the certification services in stabile and full which will be got trust from client organizations and the society.

Koichi Fujiwara
Executive Vice President
NIPPON KAIJI KYOKAI

1 July 2011