

REPORTING ON ANY CHANGES IN THE REGISTERED PARTICULARS OF A SINGAPORE SHIP

SC No.24 of 2004

14-10-2004

Applicable to: This circular should be brought to the attention to all shipowners and shipmanagers of Singapore registered ships.

Shipowners and shipmanagers of Singapore ships are reminded that they should notify the Singapore Registry of Ships (SRS) of any changes in the registered particulars of their ships. The changes in the registered particulars of a ship would include all the particulars that were submitted to the SRS when the ship was registered and include the ship's classification society, the managers, the safety management company, Designated Person Ashore (DPA) and Company Security Officers (CSOs).
