

Subject

Crew Accommodation for the Marshall Islands flag ships

ClassNK

Technical Information

No. TEC-0517
Date 15 April 2003

To whom it may concern

Crew accommodation on ships registered to the Marshall Islands is not required to satisfy ILO convention requirements. However, the government encourages applying ILO Conventions No. 92 and No. 133.

The government provides Documents of Compliance, which certify that shipboard accommodations comply with either ILO Convention No. 92 or No. 133. This optional certification will be issued, at the request of a ships owner or operator, upon satisfactory completion of the necessary plan review and shipboard surveys.

If you want to have above certification and make an application to us, ClassNK service site will issue the certification on behalf of the government.
